Candidates:

San Francisco Sheriff: Vicki Hennessy
 San Francisco Treasurer: José Cisneros

Ballot Measures:

PROPOSITION	TITLE	DESCRIPTION	VOTE RECOMMENDATION
A	Affordable Housing Bond	$310 Million General Obligation Bond to be repaid 100% by property taxes. Increases reliance on government owned rather than privately owned housing and segregates people based on income.	NO
B	Paid Parental Leave for City Employees	Increases benefits to City employees beyond that of average San Francisco residents.	No recommendation
C	Expenditure Lobbyists	Increases reporting for paid lobbying agents but unclear if it will be effective.	No recommendation
D	Mission Rock	A mixed use development near AT&T Park with housing, commercial and office space plus open space and parking.	YES
E	Requirements for Public Meetings	Will prolong government meetings by adding public testimony via the internet.	NO
F	Short-Term Residential Rentals	Overly complex legislation that replaces legislation in place that has not been tested. Urges neighbors to sue their neighbors.	NO
G	Disclosures regarding renewable energy	A PG&E measure intended to defeat Prop H (below) that was resolved through negotiation.	No recommendation
H	Defining Clean, Green, and Renewable Energy	Refines definition of green energy for power customers while using that to create opening for SF Government to get into the public power business.	No recommendation
I	Suspension of Market Rate Development in the Mission District	Stops new housing construction in all of District 9 for as long as 30 months, while development killing master plan is drawn. Suspension of new supply will worsen housing scarcity, drive prices up, and force current residents out.	NO
J	Legacy Business Historic Preservation Fund	Taxpayers will subsidize the rents and employee salaries of San Francisco businesses between 30 and 40 years old. Will lead to political favoritism, and discourages new nonsubsidized businesses from opening.	NO
K	Surplus Public Lands	Specifies that surplus City property be prioritized for lowest income residents. Risks expansion of permanent wards of the state.	NO
